

Finance: The Falls School of Business at Anderson University invites applications from established and promising scholars/practitioners who are interested in joining an ACBSP accredited program that emphasizes excellence in teaching. The tenure track position, beginning August 2008, will join 20 full-time business faculty who share a vision to develop leaders for all segments of society by combining Christian values with solid business expertise.

The ideal candidate will have a DBA or Ph.D. (ABD will be considered); some practical experience; a potentially successful publication record; and strong teaching skills. While the primary teaching load will be in finance, a secondary area of accounting, economics, or a related field would be helpful. Teaching load could include undergraduate, MBA, and potentially Doctor of Business Administration classes.

The Falls School of Business is a strong and growing academy ranked for two years running “number one” among Christian business schools by deans of Christian colleges (source: Business Reform Magazine). Anderson University is a comprehensive institution, affiliated with the Church of God of Anderson, IN, and seeks faculty who possess an active and maturing Christian faith.

Competitive benefit package and salary commensurate with experience. Screening will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Anderson University is an EEO employer.
