

Dean School of Business

California Baptist University is a private, Christian, comprehensive higher education institution affiliated with the California Southern Baptist Convention. Founded in 1950, CBU offers bachelor's, master's, and credential programs on its main campus in Riverside, San Bernardino, and online, with a purpose of providing a Christ-centered educational experience that integrates academics with spiritual and social development opportunities. The University is located on a beautiful 110-acre campus comprised of more than 30 buildings and situated in the heart of Riverside's historic Magnolia Avenue district. The campus reflects its Southern California location with palm trees and mission-style buildings with distinctive red tile roofs. California Baptist University is seeking a business-education leader to bring a well-established School of Business to the next level of excellence. The dean provides leadership for undergraduate and MBA programs in business administration, marketing and accounting, and assists faculty in developing learning environments which reflect the needs of a changing and technologically challenging work place.

A terminal degree in business or a related area and substantive teaching and administrative experience at the post-secondary level are required. Familiarity with ACBSP requirements and a variety of teaching methodologies is preferred. Developing relationships with the Riverside area business community, fund raising and student recruiting will be important facets of the position.

Environment: Riverside, California, one of the fastest growing cities in the United States, offers the amenities of a large city along with the intimacy of a college town. Located just 60 miles from Los Angeles, the area offers shopping, fine dining, arts and culture, beaches, skiing, hiking, athletic events, and amusement parks. Known as the birthplace of the California citrus industry, Riverside, with a diverse population of over 300,000 residents, is very proud of its dedication to historic preservation. The city offers breathtaking views of the San Bernardino Mountains, and the climate is mild for much of the year.

Application: Interested individuals should submit a letter of application and CV to RPA Inc. at cbudean@rpainc.org. For a confidential discussion, call Dr. Jim Barnes at 865-657-9124 or Kate Nolde at 800-992-9277. The first review of candidates will be March 18, 2012. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. California Baptist University is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
