

California Baptist University, an evangelical Christian university affiliated with the California Southern Baptist Convention, invites applications for tenure-track positions to begin August 2010 in the areas listed below. Candidates must embrace the mission of California Baptist University and evidence a clear understanding of, and commitment to, excellence in teaching through the integration of the Christian faith and learning. A terminal degree in the field indicated is preferred, although candidates with a master's degree who are working toward a terminal degree may be considered. An application for a position may be submitted electronically through the University's web site at www.calbaptist.edu.

Business - Director of the Center for Real Estate Development

The School of Business at California Baptist University seeks an energetic leader to establish and develop a new Center for Real Estate Development (CRED). The CRED is expected to serve as an educational resource for the renaissance of the home-building industry in Inland Southern California. In collaboration with faculty of the schools of business and engineering, the Director will develop degree and non-degree programs and courses for educating professionals in the real estate industry. The Director will be expected to increase enrollment-related program revenues to replace initial external funding for the CRED and sustain its growth within three years. The ideal candidate will be sufficiently experienced in the home building industry to support the practical/professional orientation that is a strength of programs offered by the School of Business. The Director will be expected to teach in the program at a high level of excellence.