

Position Announcement

The School of Management and Economics of Handong Global University in Korea invites applicants for six tenure or visiting positions: two in Economics and four in Management. All subject areas in Economics and Management are welcome, except Finance and MIS. The positions will begin in Spring or Fall 2010. Candidates should hold an earned doctorate degree, and have a strong commitment to integrating Christian values in college education.

Handong Global University (HGU: www.handong.edu) is the leading Christian university in Korea with comprehensive academic programs serving about 5,000 undergraduate and graduate students. HGU is strongly committed to changing the world by developing students in the highest Christian character as well as academic excellence.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled. For review, please send curriculum vitae and any inquiry by email to:

Dr. Youngjin Kim
Dean, School of Management and Economics
Handong Global University
ykim@handong.edu
Tel: 82-54-260-1407