

Hope College

Faculty Opening—Economics

The Department of Economics, Management and Accounting at Hope College anticipates a tenure-track opening in Economics for the 2012-2013 academic year. All specialties will be considered. Candidates should hold a Ph.D. in Economics and demonstrate an ability to combine teaching excellence with scholarly activity, and should be committed to the character and goals of a liberal arts college with a Christian perspective.

Hope College places a high priority on sustaining a supportive environment that recognizes the importance of having a diverse faculty and staff in order to best prepare our students for successful careers in our multi-cultural nation and global community. Applications from qualified persons with diverse backgrounds and cultures, including women and persons of color are, therefore, especially welcomed. Hope College complies with federal and state requirements for nondiscrimination in employment.

Hope College is a Christian coeducational, residential liberal arts undergraduate college affiliated with the Reformed Church in America.
