

Faculty Position: Assistant Professor of Business - Marketing

Salary: commensurate with rank and experience

Institution: Montreat College, Montreat, NC

Teaching Location: Montreat, NC

Date posted:

The Department of Business and Computer Information Systems of Montreat College, a Christian liberal arts college located near Asheville, North Carolina, is accepting applications for a tenure-track appointment in Marketing beginning August, 2010. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate courses in the School of Arts and Sciences (SAS) during the day at the Montreat campus.

An earned Ph.D./D.B.A. with a concentration in Marketing or an earned doctorate in a closely related field with a minimum of 18 graduate credit hours in Marketing is preferred. Terminal degreed candidates at the A.B.D. level may also be considered. Teaching experience at the college level is desirable. Accredited degrees are required.

The candidate must be willing to support the college's mission of being Christ-centered, student-focused and service-driven, and preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate a clear commitment to the integration of faith into their scholarship and teaching. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Send curriculum vitae or resume, letter of application, a one-page statement of the candidate's teaching philosophy, a one-page statement of Christian faith, unofficial transcripts from all institutions attended (official transcripts will be required of all finalists) and three letters of recommendation from individuals familiar with the candidate's abilities to Office of Academic Affairs, Montreat College, PO Box 1267, Montreat, NC 28757. Applications will be accepted immediately and the review process shall continue until the position is filled.
