

Dean School of Business (Job Search Status: Currently Accepting Resumes)

The Richard J. Bolte, Sr. School of Business at Mount St. Mary's University invites outstanding academic leaders to apply for the position of Dean, beginning July 2012. Following the service and strong leadership of the founding dean, the successful candidate will be an accomplished teacher-scholar with demonstrated administrative expertise and a commitment to academic excellence. She/he will be responsible for advancing the vision for the Bolte School of Business, hiring and developing outstanding faculty, guiding the development and implementation of new academic programs, and enhancing external relations for the school. The successful candidate must possess a Ph.D.

Mount St. Mary's University is the second oldest Catholic university in America. Located on 1,400 acres, just outside of Baltimore and Washington, D.C., the Mount offers a rigorous liberal arts education featuring a nationally recognized core curriculum and outstanding faculty with a 14:1 student to teacher ratio. The 2300-student comprehensive university is a vibrant academic community where the words Faith, Discovery, Leadership, and Community are used to describe its collective calling and promise. Additional information about Mount St. Mary's University is available online at www.msmary.edu.

Mount St. Mary's seeks academic administrators eager to engage and support our Catholic identity. Application materials should discuss how you might contribute to the University's Catholic liberal arts mission or how your own faith tradition informs your vocation as teacher and scholar. To insure full consideration, please send cover letter and curriculum vitae by January 25, 2012 to resume@msmary.edu. We will conduct initial interviews by Skype. Applicant review will begin immediately, and the position will remain open until filled.
