NAZARENE UNIVERSITY

Dean of the Fermanian School of Business San Diego, California

The Fermanian School of Business (FSB) invites applications for a full-time School Dean reporting to the University Provost. PLNU is located on the coast of beautiful San Diego, California. It is an evangelical Christian university in the Wesleyan tradition. The FSB is home to 350 undergrad students, a growing MBA program with over 130 students, a Center for International Development and maintains very close ties with the Fermanian Business and Economic Institute. The dean's responsibilities begin August 2012. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Develop, articulate, and implement a compelling vision and strategy for the School while ensuring continuous quality improvement and relevance to the business world.
- Utilize the entrepreneurial and intrapreneurial skills essential to lead the School to regional and national prominence.
- Expand the internal and external resources necessary to support the School's growth, and increase the presence and reputation of the FSB in the greater San Diego business community
- Employ effective interpersonal and team building skills essential to building cohesion within the FSB and eliciting support from internal and external constituencies.

Qualifications of the successful candidate include, but are not limited to:

- An active and maturing faith in Jesus Christ, and a commitment to PLNU as an intentional Christian community in the Wesleyan tradition.
- A terminal degree in a discipline within the school's areas of responsibility and a distinguished record of achievement as a teacher-scholar within the candidate's discipline or a distinguished and significant record of leadership experience in higher education.
- Teaching experience at both the graduate and undergraduate level
- The ability to develop and lead a diverse faculty and staff team
- A broad intellectual perspective and the strong administrative and decision making abilities that are required for effective leadership and management in an institution of higher education
