

Dean – College of Business and Computer Science

Southwest Baptist University invites applications for Dean of the College of Business and Computer Science beginning June 1, 2009. The Dean of the College of Business and Computer Science works under the administrative direction of the Provost and serves on the Deans Council, Academic Council, and the University Planning Advisory Council. The college is composed of the departments of accounting, business administration (including the masters of business administration) and computer and information sciences. The dean coordinates, supervises, and evaluates the instructional programs in the college, as well as manages the college budgets. The dean is responsible for working with the various departments to identify and implement appropriate programs for serving the needs of the college, University, and community. The dean supervises the department chairs and works with them in organizing search committees and conducting searches to fill faculty openings. The dean is responsible for the development and implementation of strategic plans and long- and short-range goals and objectives for the college. The dean advises students, communicates with current and prospective students, and teaches 6 hours per semester. The dean holds faculty rank and as a faculty member is on tenure track. It is a 12-month position.
