

ANNOUNCEMENT OF GRADUATE BUSINESS FACULTY OPENINGS MBA PROGRAM TAYLOR UNIVERSITY

MANAGEMENT / BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT. The Taylor University MBA Program is seeking applications and nominations of distinguished candidates to teach full-time in its graduate business program. Primary instruction responsibilities include graduate courses in management and business development. Other areas of instruction could include marketing, global business strategies, or economics, depending on experience and credentials. This is a tenure-track position. Rank and salary are dependent upon qualifications and experience.

QUALIFICATIONS: PhD or DBA required; MBA or related graduate business instruction experience preferred. Candidates must show evidence of professional development and teaching effectiveness of adult students and graduate business students. A record of successful college teaching, experience in online instructional delivery, and relevant professional activity is desired. Candidates must be strongly committed to the educational mission and evangelical Christian orientation of the University and the MBA Program.

RESPONSIBILITIES: The successful candidate will be required to instruct 18 graduate credit hours per year. Some administrative leadership for the MBA Program is a possible component of this position. Student advising and usual graduate business faculty responsibilities and committee assignments will be expected. A willingness to instruct courses utilizing alternative delivery methods and extensive on-line support is required. Some international travel is also expected.

ADJUNCT FACULTY POSITIONS. Due to program expansion and new market development opportunities for 2008-09, the MBA Program also has several adjunct faculty positions available. Primary areas of interest include management, business development, global business strategies, and marketing. Adjunct professors instruct one or two courses per year. Course instruction responsibilities include leading and facilitating business seminars during MBA residencies two times per four-month term, as well as using alternative delivery methods and on-line support. Opportunities for international travel are available with some adjunct assignments. Additional instructional opportunities in employer on-site programs may also be available. Experience in the instruction of graduate and/or adult students is preferred. PhD or DBA is required.

MBA PROGRAM: The Taylor University MBA features a 16-month, 36-credit hour program that is completed using a combination of residency sessions and e-learning instruction. Major areas of study include Global Business Practices, Business Development and Creativity, Christian Faith-Based Leadership and Management Strategy. MBA students are required to complete an international business study tour course during their program. (For more program information, please see the Taylor MBA website: www.taylor.edu/mba)

LOCATION: Taylor University, a four-year liberal arts college holding to a strong evangelical Christian position, operates campuses in Upland and Fort Wayne, Indiana. The Taylor University MBA has two office locations, Indianapolis and Fort Wayne, Indiana. The Indianapolis MBA office is located with Truth@Work, a marketplace ministries organization and strategic organization partner of the program. The Fort Wayne residencies and MBA office are located in the $9 million technology park at the Innovation Center in Fort Wayne. The Innovation Center, one of the learning lab partners of the MBA Program, is a business incubator that currently supports over 35 entrepreneurial firms and offers numerous opportunities for study for business faculty and MBA students.

APPLICATION: Inquiries, credentials, and supporting materials should be addressed to: Dr. Larry W. Rottmeyer, Interim Dean, Graduate Business Programs (lrottmeyer@taylor.edu). All materials will remain confidential. Women and members of minority groups are encouraged to apply. Evaluation of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Taylor University MBA
Innovation Center
3201 Stellhorn Road
Fort Wayne, IN 46815