

Trinity Western University
Dean, School of Business

Trinity Western University invites applications for a full-time position as Dean, School of Business (subject to budget approval). With a focus on the future, the Dean will develop a vision and strategic direction that engages influential business leaders such that the School of Business remains well positioned within the marketplace. A dynamic and proactive leader, he/she is responsible for initiating, shaping, implementing, supervising, and evaluating programs in the School as well as managing its day-to-day operations. The successful candidate will possess the commitment, personal characteristics, insights and abilities not only of a strong faculty member, but also those of an effective administrative and organizational leader. The Dean oversees the work of program directors and faculty, and reports to the Provost and/or his/her designate. The Dean will responsibly represent and implement the academic and administrative policies and decisions of the University.

The Dean is appointed for a three-year renewable term. Applications must be submitted by January 1, 2009. The effective date of appointment will be August 15, 2009.

More information on this position is available on-line at www.twu.ca/divisions/hr/join. Interested candidates are required to complete the on-line application. Candidates will be reviewed until the position is filled. Trinity Western University is a liberal arts university and seeks candidates who are committed to and supportive of the evangelical Christian orientation and its mission and vision for the future. In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, this advertisement is directed in the first instance to Canadian citizens or permanent residents.
