
Full-Time Tenure-Track Position in Marketing

Trinity Western University's School of Business is seeking to fill a full-time tenure-track faculty position in Marketing to provide leadership to this business focus. The School of Business is the top ranked business school in Canada in quality of education and career placement (as identified by the Globe and Mail University Report). We offer undergraduate and graduate degrees in business to over 350 students with a marketing specialization in our undergraduate program. We also offer several courses with a marketing focus in our MBA programs.

The tenure-track appointment will commence in August 2012 and is likely to be made at the Assistant Professor level, however we will accept applications for this position at all ranks. The ideal candidate will have an understanding of the global marketplace, have industry experience in the marketing area, taught at a post-secondary institution, and conducted scholarly research. Faculty candidates with an earned doctorate degree, or near completion of such, or two masters degrees, are preferred. All qualified faculty will be expected to teach in both the undergraduate and graduate programs.

The School of Business will provide many opportunities, nationally and internationally, to enhance your knowledge, skills, and integration of your faith as you seek to develop your students as transformational leaders for the marketplaces of life.
